PERKINS-WOLPIN MATCH MAY 28

Local Middleweight Will Meet Soo Railroad Brakeman In This City

Articles have been signed for a ten round exhibition of boxing between the local middleweight, Billy Perkins, and Wolpin the Soo line brakeman of Gladstone Mich., who is aspiring for honors in the ring. The bout will take place at the Grand Opera House, this city, Wednesday night, May 28.

Perkins has commenced training for the go and if the predictions of his friends do not go wrong he will handle the railroad boy with ease.

Billy feels that there will be nothing to it. It may be such a thing though that he is holding the Gladstone mitt swinger too cheap and there will be more to it than the lumberjack and his admirers reckon. Wolpin has had several engagements with fairly well known pugs and by his work has shown that he knows almost as much about the fight game as he does of railroading. He may give Billy a hard tussle. This will be his second appearance in this city, he having previously clashed with King here.

It has been some moons since Perkins boxed before a local audience and the boys are anxious to see him perform again. Like old wine he is improving right along and has a few new punches which he has never displayed here. The bout should draw a large patronage. A delegation of Soo line trainmen will be at the ringside.

There will be two or three entertaining preliminaries in which local talent will participate. An interesting card is promised.

CUBS ARE VICTORS

Take Second Game of Series by Score of 9 to 2 Sunday

Sunday at the Fair Grounds, the Cubs trimmed the O. A. C. by a score of 9 to 2. They practically won their game in the first inning, when DePlus was knocked out of the box. Nay, who relieved him, pitched a steady game throughout, although he weakened in the sixth and the Cubs shored 3 more tallies across. Payette pitched a steady game for the Cubs. On account of the cool weather, the attendance was small.

This now makes it one and one and the deciding game will be played off next Sunday. Both teams have a long string of followers, and if the weather is good, there should be a record breaking crowd. Henzel, the regular pitcher for O. A. C., will be in the line-up.

The following is the box score:

MARRY WEDNESDAY EVENING

Miss Mary Schlotte And William Secard Join Hearts

Miss Mary Schlotte of this city was married to William B. Secard of Fond du Lac at St. Mary's parsonage Wednesday evening. Rev. Dr. Leinfelder officiated at the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Ada Schueller and Paul J. Gaston was best man.

As the wedding party left the parsonage the groom was seized by a number of his friends who had cuff and shackled him and escorted him to the K. of P. hall where he was hazed in the most approved style. Some of the things which they did to William wouldn't look good in print but he bore his punishment like a hero.

Mr. and Mrs. Secard left to day for Milwaukee and Chicago where after a short visit they will go to Fond du Lac to reside. He has a position in the leading drug store there.

The bride has spent practically all her life in this city and is a young lady with many friends.

Mr. Secard was formerly employed as prescription clerk at the Hinman drug store here and is very popular. Congratulations are extended to the happy young couple.

PICTURES ARE FIRST CLASS

During the last week some especially interesting photo play pictures have been shown at the Majestic theater. These pictures are the best sent out by the film houses and the subjects are exceptionally good. The extra big crowds that have been packing the theater testify to the high quality of the programs.

William Pufahl, operator at the Majestic, with his newly remodeled picture machine, is turning out a better class of pictures than ever before. There is not a single flicker and the reels run off perfectly. This is due both to the splendid work of the machine and Mr. Pufahl's skill as an operator.

FINDS BRIDE IN EGYPT

J. P. Dysart, connected with the Children's Home Finding society and well known in Rhinelander owing to his frequent visits here in the past, sent out by the film houses and the subjects are exceptionally good. The extra big crowds that have been packing the theater testify to the high quality of the programs.

Dispatches say that Mr. Dysart is married and that he met his bride in Egypt, where she was engaged in missionary work. They met in the mission school of the United Presbyterians at Alexandria. Later the bride returned to the United States and ten days ago Mr. Dysart went to her home in Pennsylvania, where the wedding occurred.

SUNDAY SCHOOL GRADUATION

Exercises Held At St. Augustine's Guild Hall Sunday

The exercises of St. Augustine's Sunday School graduating class were held in the Guild Hall Sunday evening. The members of the class were Florence Brown, Mildred Germon-L. Helen Krueger, Ruth Raymond and Rachael Joslin.

Well prepared essays were read by the graduates and different members of the Sunday School classes. The classes were also catechized by the teachers, showing the work done during the year.

The musical program consisted of duets by Ella and Emma Trumbull, Robert and Wm. L. Sutliff and a piano solo by Forest Rieck. Each number was well rendered and the program proved a delightful feature of the evening.

The graduates will now enter a normal course in preparation for teachers of the Sunday School classes.

WILL OBSERVE MEMORIAL DAY

Exercises May 30th Will Be In Charge Of Company L Members

Friday, May 26, is Memorial Day. The day will be observed in an appropriate manner in Rhinelander.

Company L will have charge of the program, which while not yet entirely arranged, will be about the same as that of last year. There will be a parade to Forest Home cemetery where exercises will be held and the graves of soldiers decorated. A firing squad from Company L will also go to St. Mary's cemetery.

The procession will form at the Armory at 9:30 o'clock and all lodges and societies are invited to participate. Conveyances will be at the disposal of G. A. R. veterans. It is urged that school children join in the parade.

Throughout the day flags should be at half mast out of respect for the nation's dead heroes.

All donations of flowers should be left at the Armory early on Decoration Day morning.

"Clincher" Paint

We know a paint which holds to the wood like a driven nail. Seasoned lumber is porous. The pores are the empty sap-cells. White lead paint, which dries on the wood in the form of a solid, elastic film, fastens into these pores, and the whole coat of paint is actually riveted like armorplate to the surface it decorates and protects.

Red Seal White Lead

(U. S. Patent Office Trade Mark)

and Pure Linseed Oil

make the paint that spreads into a solid body. It becomes a part of the wood itself—an outer layer that preserves the life of the lumber.

We sell it as well as other painting requisites. Come in and have a talk with us about painting.

Boys are warned against shooting air guns in the city limits. It is a dangerous pastime and may result in serious injury to people who may be in the vicinity of the shooting. While passing through an alley way a few days ago a business man of this city narrowly escaped being hit in the face by one of the little shots which struck the front of his hat.

NEW BOOKS AT LIBRARY

Those who read the spicy articles in the Chicago Tribune by J. T. McCutcheon while he was on his hunting trip in Africa, will be interested in his book "In Africa, Hunting Adventures in the Big Game Country."

This book forms a record of a four and a half months trip along the equator which was filled with interesting experiences and adventures. Not the last interesting portion of Mr. McCutcheon's book is that relating the interchange of courtesies and stories between the author and Mr. Roosevelt when they met in Africa. The book is finely illustrated with many photographs, and the characteristic cartoons add zest to the narrative.

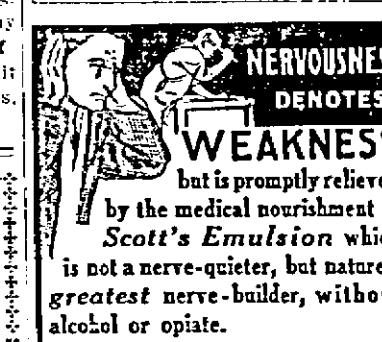

Kitten—The Dickens Country. A well illustrated book on the part of England made famous by Charles Dickens.

Jewel—Good Health.

A sensible book interesting for children in the grades, and high school treating of pure air, ventilation, cleanliness, care of the eyes, ears, finger nails, hair, toenails, skin, the importance of exercise, taching and correct breathing. Although written for the young, many older people get more from these simple directions than they do from the books written for adults.

Hippocrate—Redeemed. Since his A book that will give ideas of how to correctly write presentation speeches, responses and addresses of different kinds to be delivered in public. From the title page we quote: "Only one person in a hundred can speak extemporaneously in public. This book is for the other ninety-nine."

Comparative Digestibility of Food

Made with different Baking Powders

From a Series of Elaborate Chemical Tests:

An equal quantity of bread (biscuit) was made with each of three different kinds of baking powder—cream of tartar, phosphate, and alum—and submitted separately to the action of the digestive fluid, each for the same length of time.

Bread made with

Royal Cream of Tartar Powder:

100 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with phosphate powder:

52 1/2 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with alum powder:

57 1/2 Per Cent. Digested

These tests, which are absolutely reliable and irrefutable, make plain a fact of great importance to everyone: Food raised with Royal, a cream of tartar Baking Powder, is shown to be entirely digestible, while the alum and phosphate powders are found to largely retard the digestion of the food made from them.

Un-digested food is not only wasted food, but it is the source of very many bodily ailments.

FORMER POLICEMAN HERE

Morris Doyle was here from Goodman this week visiting relatives and renewing old acquaintances. Morris who for several years was a member of the Rhinelander police force still continues as guardian of the law by serving as constable in Goodman.

Morris made a good policeman and was always on the job. To this day stories are related of the forcible and fearless manner in which he steered tramps and other undesirable elements out of the city. The mere mention of his name filled with terror the hearts of hoboes and crooks.

Morris' friends are glad to learn that he is prospering and enjoying life in the enterprising lumber town.

BRONCHITIS SUFFERER

Takes Druggist's Advice With Splendid Result.

If anyone should know the worth of a medicine, it is the retail druggist who sells it over his counter every day in the week, and is in a position to know what remedy gives the best satisfaction.

Mrs. Frank H. Uline, of West Sand Lake, N. Y., says: "For a number of years I was a great sufferer from bronchitis. Last July I had an attack which was more severe than any, and my friends thought I could not recover from it. Then I was advised by my druggist to try Vinol, which I did, with wonderful results. My cough has left me; I have gained in weight and appetite, and I am as strong as ever I was. I advise all who have bronchitis, chronic coughs, or who are run down, to try Vinol."

It is the combined action of the medicinal curative elements of the cat's liver, without the greasy oil, aided by the bowel-making and strength-creating properties of the iron that makes Vinol so efficient.

Remember, we guarantee Vinol to do just what we say—we pay back your money if it does not.

FATHER JOHNSON ON VACATION

The Rev. Fr. and Mrs. Johnson are spending a two weeks vacation visiting Chicago, with the special intention of seeing "The World in Chicago." Fr. Johnson may be addressed during this absence from Rhinelander at 450 Prairie Ave., Chicago, Ill.

On Sunday May 25th, and Sunday June 1st, the regular services at St. Augustine's church will be in charge of Mr. Leon S. Lafave, a postulant for Holy Orders, and a Junior at Nashotah Theological Seminary. All of the services will be at the usual hour except that there will be no celebration of the Holy Eucharist, the 7:30 a. m. service being omitted.

Remember, we guarantee Vinol to do just what we say—we pay back your money if it does not.

P. S. Stop scratching, our Sarsaparilla stops itching. We guarantee it.

From the evidence gathered at the tax trial this week, the houses of this city worth two thousand dollars and less are usually assessed at a much higher percent of their value than the costly homes. Who pay the taxes?

Governor Johnson of California has signed the antialien land bill in spite of the protest of Japan and the remonstrances of President Wilson and Secretary Bryan. The legislature of California passed the bill by an almost overwhelming vote. It will go into effect on August 17.

IRRIGATION NOT NEEDED

Ultimately irrigation will be a success, whatever its present status, but it is comforting to reflect that Wisconsin still has plenty of good land that does not need irrigation and is not a thousand miles from a market.—Evening Wisconsin.

This is a truth that should appeal to the public. Upper Wisconsin is both a good thing and a sure thing. While just now there are plenty of these lands, they will not last long when the public becomes awakened to their value.

A fair illustration of the taxation of some of the corporations in the city is the Rhinelander Refrigerator Company. The assessment was about twelve thousand dollars on the land and buildings before the construction of the last large brick building which cost about twenty-five thousand dollars; then the assessment was raised to twelve thousand six hundred dollars. The fact is the stockholders might just as well pay honest taxes as to pay for the extravagant advertising of some of the products owned and handled by a few of the stockholders or to stand the loss of extensive thefts by employees who escape without prosecution.

COMMON PEOPLE PAY MORE

It was amusing yesterday in the tax trial at the court house to hear the lapses of memory. Chairman James Baker of the fifth ward, who is president of the brewery, could not remember anything about the various investments in that plant. We feared the chairman had passed, but he did come to, to tell us something we told the voters last year would happen, that the homes were taxed at a much higher percent of their value than the corporations. We would like to ask our Mayor and the men whom he appointed on the Board of Review where there is anything in their oaths of office which allows them to tax the residences and little places of business higher than the corporations?

ANDERSON GREAT ORATOR

The session appears so far to have been only moderately productive in possibilities of leadership. In the assembly Judge Charles D. Ross, Beloit, has been an active member on the LaFollette side. Ross is credited with aspirations for the governorship. He is a good debater on many subjects, though he does not often attempt an oratorical flight. The honors for oratory appear to rest with Douglas Anderson, Rhinelander, one of the younger members. Anderson is of the type that has made the LaFollette movement the success it is in Wisconsin. Intensely democratic, and fervent in his convictions, Anderson has probably made more progress than any of the new members in earning a place for himself.

His rival in oratory is T. A. Manning, Second Milwaukee district, who sits on the Democratic side. Manning has taken the floor only a few times, but he always prepared himself painstakingly and was heard with interest. Both Anderson and Manning are varsity orators—Milwaukee Journal.

THE UNDERWOOD BILL

Views of state legislators on Underwood Tariff—ISH:

Senator H. C. Martin president pro tem of the senate—I agree with the opinions expressed by Mr. Lenroot and the others at the banquet. The stage in the assembly of the resolution giving the people of this state the right to vote whether or not they wish to recreate the organic law of the state, an opportunity for eliminating obsolete and restrictive provisions in our constitution which has not been thoroughly revised for sixty five years. No more important matter than this will engage the attention of this legislature. Senator LaFollette said: ‘The will of the people shall be the law of the land. Constitutions, governments, and laws must be made subject to their will.’ Woodrow Wilson, in advocating a constitutional convention in New Jersey about two weeks ago, said: ‘The people of this country and of this state are going to have what they know they ought to have, by one process or another.’

“This marks the final legislative

Believes in People

Assemblyman Axel Johnson—This tariff bill was drafted in the interest of the southern planters and incidentally it creates the belief in the minds of laborers in the cities that it will lower living cost by reducing raw materials from the farms and letting in the finished product free. It will have the effect of reducing the value of crops in the Middle West and the North West, for the reason that it is of no benefit to the farmer when there is a tariff on wheat, and flour is free. It will lower the price of farm products and lower the price of land. I agree with the speakers. For the farmers, the Underwood bill is ten times worse than the Payne bill.

Assemblyman Newcomb Spoor—It is not right to cut the tariff to the lowest point. LaFollette has always been safe on the tariff with the plan for difference of cost of production at home and abroad for the basis. The Democrats have also adopted the valorem system, which makes the rates lower than they appear on their face. I don't know what effect it will have on prosperity—I hope none. I have an idea that LaFollette will resist some of the reductions and try to make them reasonable.

Sees LaFollette's Opportunity

Assemblyman Douglas Anderson—If the schedules are as represented, LaFollette will have the greatest opportunity of his career to come into leadership, with a tariff speech such as he delivered when the Aldrich bill was being discussed, and Stalwarts are bound to fall in line. This country has never been for free trade, or for revenue only. Most of the people believe in the protective theory. The republican congressmen did right to vote against the Underwood bill.

FORWARD

“I would have you day by day fix your eyes upon the greatness of Athens, until you become filled with the love of her; and when you are impressed by the spectacle of her glory, reflect that this empire has been acquired by men who knew their duty and had the courage to do it.”—Pericles.

If we think “America” for “Athens” and “democracy” for “empire,” we shall have in the above a fifth thought as the basis for the observance of Memorial Day and other patriotic occasions. That celebration is most in accord with the spirit and purpose of Memorial Day, Lincoln's Birthday, and the rest, which does most to teach us our present duty as citizens of a great nation and which, from the recital and contemplation of the deeds of those who brought the nation into existence and of those who saved it from destruction, develops the courage to do that duty. Whatever interferes with this purpose constitutes a desecration of the day. But such desecration cannot be prevented by mere negative prohibition of sports and other activities foreign to the spirit of the occasion. An observance should be planned and carried out which will attract the interest and absorb the attention of the entire community. Here, it would seem, lies the duty of leaders in patriotic endeavor. Less shouting of “Don't!” and more incentives and opportunities to do the right thing, are necessary to save these patriotic days for the good of the nation.

Now the school often is and always should be a leading factor in local patriotic celebrations; and, which is even more to the point, it instills in the pupils those ideas and ideals with regard to such events which they in their turn make dominant in the community. Not, then, as an irksome task, but as a patriotic duty and a splendid opportunity for civic service, should the schools of the state prepare for the observance of Memorial Day and other patriotic special days. — Wisconsin Memorial Day Annual.

FOR CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

By a vote of 49 to 23 the assembly last week adopted the joint resolution submitting the question of a constitutional convention to the people of the state.

Assemblyman Douglas Anderson of Oneida, who led the fight for the resolution last week, made an argument for it today, while Roemer sought to have the resolution laid over until next week, but failed. Mr. Anderson said in part:

“This marks the final legislative

B. N. Moran was reelected chairman of the Oneida County Board by acclamation at the meeting of the new board Tuesday afternoon. A. W. Brown was unanimously chosen vice-chairman.

The board convened Tuesday afternoon with all members responding to the roll except John Schwartz of Hazelhurst. The board adjourned until after the completion of the state tax commission hearing on the city and county tax controversy now in progress.

TAX SALE IS ON

The delinquent tax sale of lands in Oneida county opened at the court house Tuesday and will continue for the next few days. County Treasurer Cain reports many bidders and large sales.

The heaviest bidders are Guarantee Investment Co., Gilkey & Anson, Brown Brothers Lumber Co., L. A. Doolittle, Mrs. Kate Pier, Wixson & Forbes, E. G. Squier, C. Eby and E. S. Shepard.

AUTO HITS SQUAW

A squaw who is a member of the band of Chippewas in Sugar Camp was struck by an automobile on the road between this city and Eagle River late Monday night. She was seriously hurt. Her papoose was with her at the time of the accident but escaped unharmed.

CUT EXPRESS RATES

The Wisconsin railroad commission has ordered an average reduction of 20% in express rates. Every express company operating in Wisconsin is included in the ruling.

Under the rates ordered by the commission the minimum is 21 cents, and the increases up to the 100 pound rate are evenly distributed over all the different weights. The effect of this change is to make a drastic cut in the charges on the smaller shipments, which constitute the bulk of business, and leave the charges for the larger shipments comparatively unchanged. Walter Drew, who was the city's attorney in the electric light probe in this city and is attorney for the Rhinelander Paper Company represented the merchants and manufacturers of Milwaukee who won this case against the express companies.

Simple Remedy for Burns.

Common whitening, mixed with water to the consistency of a thick cream spread on linen, forms an excellent local application to burns and scalds. The whole burnt surface should be covered, thus excluding the action of the air. The ease it affords is instantaneous, and it only requires to be kept moist by occasional sprinklings of cold water.

Softening Light for Invalids.

When any one is ill electric light in the room, if very strong, will tend to hurt the eyes and probably induce headache and cause a rise of temperature. A little bag made of green silk, large enough to slip easily right over the light, shade and all, can be fitted on and will look dainty and pretty. Run a drawstring in so as to tie it on quickly, otherwise the patient will object to the fuss.

Good Idea.

Organist (discussing the music for a special service)—And after that chant I'll put in something lighter, something to relieve the heavy classic style of the Te Deum. Bilkins (on the committee)—Ah, anything to relieve the tedium will be appreciated.—Tatler.

Care of Shoes.

Evening shoes should be wrapped in tissue paper, and white shoes will turn yellow unless incased in blue paper.

On most light shoe leather a spot or stain can be washed off, but where this is impossible or the shoe is too badly soiled it is better to dye it a darker color or black. Various shoe dyes can be purchased and with a renewal of color now and then you have practically provided for yourself a new pair of shoes.

Fixing Their Relations.

Mrs. Jamelson-Smythe (to the maid in her first job)—You mustn't keep on calling me Mrs. Jamelson-Smythe every time you address me. You should say, 'Yes, mam,' or 'No, mam.' Sally—“Oh, I can't call yer mam, becos that's wot I calls me mother. But I'll call yer auntie if yer like!”

THE LABORING MAN is giving his life and energy simply to PLAY EVEN, at the end of the year; not a cent ahead of where he was twelve months before, and part of his strength gone. And he had to work every day of the year that he could get work on, to keep even.

Contrast it with the farmer, whose needs are less because in the country there are not the temptations to spend money on. Day by day and year by year, he ADDS to his CAPITAL in the form of improvements, live stock, or more land. Eventually he is a well to do, respected citizen, while his brother in the factory is not a cent ahead, while his strength and energy is gone.

Offer their Services Free of Charge

The United Doctors, licensed by the State of Wisconsin, for the treatment of deformities and nervous and chronic diseases of men, women, and children, offer to all who call on this trip, consultation, examination, advice free, making no charge whatever, except the actual cost of treatment. All that is asked in return for these valuable services is that every person treated will state the result obtained to their friends and thus prove to the sick and afflicted in every city and town, that at last treatments have been discovered that are reasonably sure and certain in their effect.

These doctors are among America's leading stomach and nerve specialists and are experts in the treatment of chronic diseases and so great and wonderful have been their results that in many cases it is hard to find the dividing line between skill and miracle.

Diseases of the stomach, intestines, liver, blood, skin, nerves, heart, spleen, kidneys, or bladder, rheumatism, sciatica, diabetes, bed-wetting, tape worm, leg ulcers, weak lungs, and those afflicted with long-standing, deep seated, chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of the family physicians, should not fail to call. Deafness often has been cured in sixty days.

According to their system no more operations for appendicitis, gall stones, tumors, goiter, piles, etc., as these diseases are treated without operation or hypodermic injection.

They were among the first in America to earn the name of "Bloodless Surgeons," by doing away with the knife with blood and with all pain in the successful treatment of these dangerous diseases.

If you have kidney or bladder trouble, not subscribe now.

bles bring a two ounce bottle of your urine for chemical analysis and microscopic examination.

No matter what your ailment may be, no matter what others may have told you, no matter what experience you may have had with other physicians, it will to your advantage to see them at once. Have it forever settled in your mind, if your case is incurable they will give you such advice as may relieve and stay the disease. Do not put off this duty until you owe yourself or friends or relatives who are suffering because of your sickness, as a visit at this time may help you.

Worn-out and run-down men or women, no matter what your ailment, nervous and chronic diseases of men, women, and children, offer to all who call on this trip, consultation, examination, advice free, making no charge whatever, except the actual cost of treatment. All that is asked of your sickness, as a visit at this time may help you.

From the report of everyone who has used an ordinary traction engine, without exception, they claim that more can be done in one day by the use of an engine than what could be done in from one to three weeks with a team and stump puller. The engine should be of sufficient size to handle any stump that a chain is thrown around. A 25 horse-power engine has pulled stumps 1 ft. in diameter without the use of any dynamite. The dynamite is little preferable as it loosens the dirt from the stump first.

Now my suggestion would be to have the legislature pass an act allowing towns or counties to issue bonds for the purchase of machinery for such purposes in the different towns on the application of a certain number of resident freeholders. Then allow them to hire one man with each outfit after a certain number of applications for clearing have been received and let this one foreman hire as many men as needed at the first expense of the town or county. With the understanding that not more than 10 acres is to be cleared for each applicant at any one time. If there are previous applications waiting, in that way, all can be served.

Let the foreman in charge keep an accurate account for every dollar expended on each piece of land with a due allowance to the wear and tear on the machinery and turn this expense account into the town or county as the case may be and have them in turn assess the expense so that it would be a lien on the land payable in equal annual installments of ten or twenty years with as low a rate of interest as possible.

In this way no one would be out a dollar and the land would soon be giving returns ten to twenty fold of the money expended and the country would settle up more in one year than in ten under the present conditions and the settlers in a very short time would be prosperous and well to do.

From a legal stand point, there is no reason why this should not be as binding as the drainage ditch laws that you will find on the statute books of your state as well as on the statute books of the surrounding states.

SUGGESTS PLAN TO CLEAR LAND

A. P. Rickmire Has Scheme Which If Acted Upon Might Aid Farmers

Attorney A. P. Rickmire, a former resident of Rhinelander who is now in the land business in Milaca, Minn., writes the New North the following communication which will be of interest to the farmers of northern Wisconsin:

Milaca, Minn., 5-21-13.

Editor New North:

I notice the article in your paper under the heading of Northern people get attention and the bills proposed for assisting the settlers. Some of the bills proposed if passed might be of benefit to some settlers but if the legislature wished to do something to benefit practically every citizen and county in the north half of the state, they should devise means for clearing of the lands so as to give all the settlers a chance to help themselves and the balance will take care of itself.

The day is passed when anything can be done by hand labor to advantage and economically. This applies to the clearing of the land as well as other large enterprises and requires experienced men to go ahead with it having the proper machinery to assist them. An inexperienced settler will buy $40.00 or $50.00 worth of dynamite and use it all perhaps on a little patch of ground and it will take him a week or two with a good team to get that little patch of ground ready for the plow.

From the report of everyone who has used an ordinary traction engine, without exception, they claim that more can be done in one day by the use of an engine than what could be done in from one to three weeks with a team and stump puller. The engine should be of sufficient size to handle any stump that a chain is thrown around. A 25 horse-power engine has pulled stumps 1 ft. in diameter without the use of any dynamite. The dynamite is little preferable as it loosens the dirt from the stump first.

Now my suggestion would be to have the legislature pass an act allowing towns or counties to issue bonds for the purchase of machinery for such purposes in the different towns on the application of a certain number of resident freeholders. Then allow them to hire one man with each outfit after a certain number of applications for clearing have been received and let this one foreman hire as many men as needed at the first expense of the town or county. With the understanding that not more than 10 acres is to be cleared for each applicant at any one time. If there are previous applications waiting, in that way, all can be served.

Let the foreman in charge keep an accurate account for every dollar expended on each piece of land with a due allowance to the wear and tear on the machinery and turn this expense account into the town or county as the case may be and have them in turn assess the expense so that it would be a lien on the land payable in equal annual installments of ten or twenty years with as low a rate of interest as possible.

In this way no one would be out a dollar and the land would soon be giving returns ten to twenty fold of the money expended and the country would settle up more in one year than in ten under the present conditions and the settlers in a very short time would be prosperous and well to do.

From a legal stand point, there is no reason why this should not be as binding as the drainage ditch laws that you will find on the statute books of your state as well as on the statute books of the surrounding states.

Yours truly,

A. P. RICKMIRE.

WHO LOST THE BALL?

A red base ball was found in the press room of this establishment early Friday afternoon. How the ball made its way into the building is somewhat of a conundrum, although it is believed that a broken window pane may add something toward the solution of the mystery. However, as the New North office is too busy to indulge in the game of catch, it is the desire to return this ball to its rightful owner. He may have same by calling at this office and claiming property.

TROUBLE AT LONG LAKE

Two Former Residents Involved In Factional Fight

The following from the Florence Mining News will be of interest to Rhinelander people as two of the men involved in the case, Alex McCutcheon and A. Daigle, are former residents of this city:

Two rival factions at Long Lake came together on Saturday, May 3, and the result of the "clash" was the issuance of wholesale assault and battery warrants against the principals on both sides.

Alex McCutcheon swore out as assault and battery warrants in Justice of the Peace Young's court, in Florence against M. H. Magaurn, Harvey Hoblitzel, Joseph Fisher, Charles Wenzel and Adolph Daigle, and the accused were arrested by Sheriff Jas. J. Axring and brought into court on Tuesday of this week. All entered pleas of not guilty and the case was set for trial on Wednesday next, May 21st. The defendants were released on their own recognizance.

M. H. Magaurn procured warrants from J. E. Johnson, justice of the peace at Long Lake, charging Alex McCutcheon, Norman McCutcheon, William Daugenbaugh, Ray Daugenbaugh and J. W. Quinn with assault and battery. Subsequently the defendants in this action filed an affidavit of prejudice and asked for a change of venue. The motion was granted and the case was removed to the court of Geo. C. Youngs, Justice of the peace, this city, for trial. The papers were brought to Florence on Thursday by Deputy Sheriff Daigle, all the defendants appearing and pleading not guilty. The case was set for trial on Thursday, May 22, at 10 o'clock a. m. Each of the accused was released without bail or bond.

"When I invest in a wagon
I buy a Studebaker, then it's a safe investment"

Of course it is! Studebaker wagons are built on honor, with sixty years of wagon-building experience—and with every wagon goes a Studebaker guarantee.

You can't afford to have a dealer sell you some other wagon represented to be "just as good."

If you want a wagon that will last, run easily and stand up to its work, there is only one wagon to buy—and that's a Studebaker.

Don't trade ten extra years of service for a few dollars difference in price.

Studebaker wagons are made to fit every requirement of business or pleasure, in city, town or country.
